

St Joseph's College 16-19 Tuition Fund – 2021-2022

16-19 Tuition Fund Statement

The document below details how the additional funding allocated to the college to mitigate the disruption to learning arising from coronavirus will be spent.

Year groups	Strategy	Rational:	Impact	Cost	Review Date/ Review
12 and 13	Small group GCSE English tuition provided to selected students and delivered by teachers within the college and/or external tutors.	To provide additional support to selected students who have not yet achieved a Grade 4 in GCSE English. Tuition groups will be split into low, medium and high ability students to provide targeted support. Tuition will be provided by a specialist English teacher between January (following publication of the retake results) and the summer examination series. Support to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Retake examination preparation- Feedback on assessment work- Online monitoring of work completed on GCSE Pod- Small group tuition The college will run 3 tuition groups.	Student's achieve their Grade 4 or higher in their GCSE retake English examination in July and can continue with their post-18 pathway of study.	£6200	August 2022 (following publication of the examination results)

St Joseph's College 16-19 Tuition Fund – 2021-2022

12 and 13	Small group GCSE Maths tuition provided to selected students and delivered by teachers within the college and/or external tutors.	To provide additional support to selected students who have not yet achieved a Grade 4 in GCSE Maths. Tuition groups will be split into low, medium and high ability students to provide targeted support. Tuition will be provided by a specialist Maths teacher/tutor between January (following publication of the retake results) and the summer examination series. Support to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Completion of functional skills where applicable- Retake examination preparation- Feedback on assessment work- Online monitoring of work completed on GCSE Pod- Small group tuition The college will run 3 tuition groups.	Student's achieve their Grade 4 or higher in their GCSE retake maths examination in July and can continue with their post-18 pathway of study.	£6200	August 2022 (following publication of the examination results)