

Read the news everyday and find out what is going on in the world. This could be in a newspaper or even a phone app. The BBC news app is a good place to start.

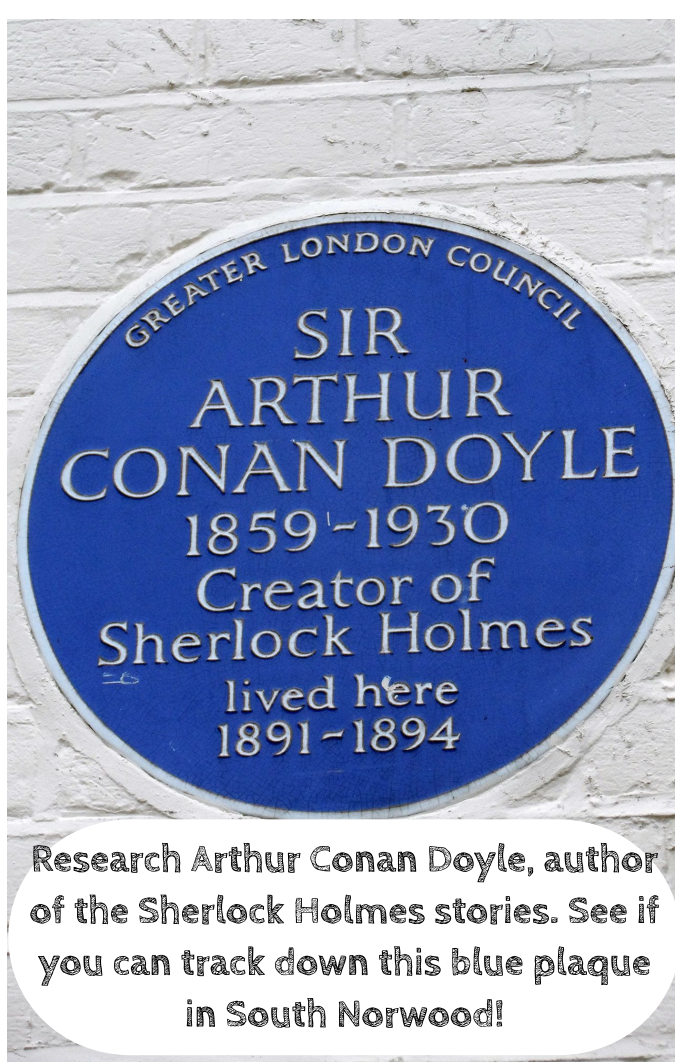

Get organised for next year. File your notes from this year. Find out what revision guides might be useful.

We can't wait to see you all again for some more amazing achievements in English when we are back in September. In the meantime, why not use the summer holiday to...

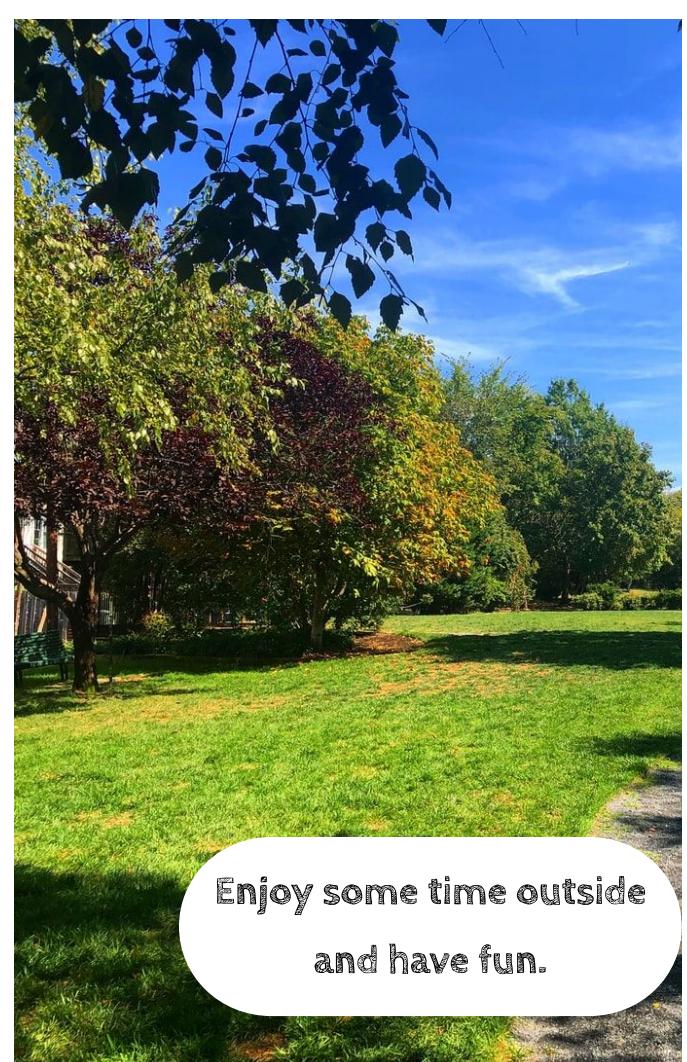

Read more! Maybe join your local library.

Research Arthur Conan Doyle, author of the Sherlock Holmes stories. See if you can track down this blue plaque in South Norwood!

Write something. It could be a poem, some lyrics, a story but try and get creative!

Enjoy some time outside and have fun.
